Specimen "Reform."

The Democracy have been telling the people how they meant to reform things, when they got into power. They were going to stop Republican rescality and corruption, and cut down expenses. They have made a good beginning. They are cutting down expenses for the purpose of destroying the army and navy that conquered the rebellion, and have commenced piling in rebel claims that will amount to more than the national debt. This will be delayed only until they have a majority in both branches of Con-

Their "Reform," too, is cropping out. They find it necessary to expel a Door-keeper of the House every Winter, for rascality, and have become so disgusted that they are talking of abolisbing the office of Door-keeper. In Ohio, they elected a Democratic Governor and Legislature. The Governor is a wholesale grocer of Cincinnati, and he appointed as Warden of the Penitentiary a man whose son is the head clerk in his grocery house, with the nice little arrangement that all the grocery bills of the peniter tiary were to be purchased of the firm of Bishop & Co. The fact became so patent that the Legislature was compelled to put a prohibition upon the little job. In the same Legislature, one O'Councr was made Chairman of the Military Committee. The crimes of desertion, bountyjumping, and perjury have been fastened upon him, and it has been found necessary to deprive him of his Chairmanship.

And now comes a superannuated old Democra ic seed, named Jerry Black, who has been bawling fraud and corruption at the Republican party for years. Within the past year, he published a long article in a magazine, relative to the Republican fraud in defeating Tilden for the Presidency. The revelation now comes, that while he was an attorney in the celebrated Mc-Garraban claim, he procured a false affidavit to be made, in order to secure the allowance of the claim, for which he received an enormous fee.

For a beginning, the Democracy are doing remarkakly well, and are living up to the "time honored traditions of the party."

A SUDDEN CHANGE OF TUNE.-The day after Senator Howe delivered his speech, the entire Republican delegation from Wisconsin in the House, with Senator Cameron, of the same State. called upon the President in a body, to assure him that they had not been consulted by Senator Howe, and that they did not approve of his speech, but regarded it as ill-advised and out of place. And while they were there, they happened to remember that ex-Congressman Cobb, formerly of Wisconsin, was a candidate for Register of the Treasury, in place of Mr. Allison deceased. They could vouch for his ability and integrity, and took the liberty of suggesting his appointment. The Presidential hypocrite entered very cordially into their views, and gave them to understand that Cobb would be appointed. But when they got back to the Capitol, they were bumfoozled to learn that the name of Schofield, of Pennsylvania, had already been sent into the Senate for the same appointment, and that it had been made the day before their visit. Then they went to cursing Hayes. They should have cursed themselves for eating dirt. We have not heard that they have called in a body upon Senator Howe, to apologize for the

been on a former committee would not hear to itants for each child of sch it, as they were not willing to be treated with contempt a second time. Even some of those who have hitherto sustained the President, confessed that it appeared useless to trifle with him longer, and thought that the only hope for the Republican party was for the Republican members of Congress to repudiate Hayes, and strike out boldly for the integrity of the party.

The Democrats in Congress have turned out another Republican Congressman, and seated his Democratic opponent. This time, it is from Massachusetts. It is singular, that out of all the contests before Congress, the Republicans were always the rascals. It was the Republicans who did all the swindling. Where Democracy has the might, there is no chance for the right. Yet, when the Republicans are in power, Democrats come whining to them for a division of patronage; and there can always be found limber-backed Republicans to favor their claims. The organs and apologists of the President condemn Howe's speech, as calculated to injure the Republican party, and encourage the Democracy. Better to endorse Hayes, who is doing so much to strengthen the Republican party. The only remedy for that loathsome cancer upon the hody of the Republican party, is to apply the knife to it, instead of nursing and petting it. The operation may hurt, for the time being, but it will be apt to cure.

country, on Tuesday, resulted in mixed successes of Republicans and Democrats. In very few places did either party make a clean sweep. The new National party did not develop much strength, except in two or three cities.

In St. Joseph, Kansas City, and Atchison, the result was in favor of portions of both the Republican and Democratic tickets.

IF If the Bulletin will carefully read the speech of Mr. Green, in last week's Chief, it will find that there is no allusion in it to soldiers enlisting in the Union army to do dirty work for the Government. That's the difference between the speech the Chief published and the one the Bulletis published. And furthermore, the men who made the two speeches were of different kinds of Greens, altogether. So, try, try again.

Woodson Wyandotte Witness, containing a daub which purports to be a likeness of Col. Phillips, Congressmen from this District. It is an old wood-cut, that has been lying around the printing offices for years, having originally been used as a portait of a notorious pirate. We are in daily expectation of hearing that Col. Phillips has commenced a suit against the publishers for damage.

From present appearances, the office of Secretary of State will be more warmly contested than any other, in the coming Republican Sfate Convention. Among the probable candi dates we hear the name of Hon. P. I. B. Ping, of Crawford County. He is a gentleman of ability and popularity, and would make an officer who would do honor to the position.

Europe still wears a warlike aspect Russia is still moving forward, and England is issuing circulars. Indications are, that Russia has no idea of backing down, and unless England does, there must be a fight.

The war party in England embraces all the roughs and rowdies, who will do none of the fighting, in case of a war.

Our Emigration Paper.

We have concluded to make this a "big" paper, for emigration purposes, since we have seen enemies. The infinite The main idea is to get in a lick at all of one's variety of the Number is not more striking than

In the opening article, entitled "The American Clyde," the reader is introduced to the great iron ship-yards on the Delaware; and before his eyes every stage in the building of an iron ship is repreented in the vigorous text of the article, and in un nerous effective illustrations.

The illustrated descriptive papers have for their subjects Siena, the ancient rival of Florence, and th

"The Electric Time Service," is a scientific subject reated in a popular style by Prof. S. P. Langley, of the Alleghany Observatory, with illustrations. "The Normal College of New York City," by W. H. Rideing, is an important educational paper, treated in a very picturesque style, with bright and novel illustrations, by Reinhart, Miss Custis, and others artists. A fine sketch, unillustrated, by Mrs. Sarah C. Hallowell, given in another part of the Number, is full of suggestions as to the physical and mental train ing of girls. An illustrated paper, by W. L. Alden, cutitled. "The Perfect Canoe," will be read with interest by every canocist, and will prove entertaining to the general reader. Art subjects are given considerable space. The see ond paper of the series, on "Old Flemish Masters," i about Hubert and Jean Van Eyek, the latter of whot introduced important improvements in the use colors. The paper is beautifully illustrated. Under the title of "A New Departure in American Art," G. W. Sheldon contributes a very interesting article or the new art association—the "Society of American Artists"-whose first exhibition is now being held it the Kurtz Gallery, in New York City.

Immediately associated with art subjects are th poetical contents of the Number. Milton's "L'Alle gro" is reproduced, with twenty-two illustrations made by the artist of the London Etching Club some thirty years ago. A Song, by C. G. Rosetti, is the notive for an exquiste illustration by Abbey. "The Friar-Ass," an interesting and humorous poem, by Pignotts, the Italiian La Fontaine, is reprodue version made by Henry F. Cary, the distinguish ed translator of Daute, with three illustrations by

Of fiction there are two remarkable novels, by Wil liam Black and Thomas Hardy, and a number of excellent short stories. Black's story, this month, contains a beautiful illustration by George H. Boughton. "Aunt Kerammiek's Art Studies," one of the short stories, is a very humorous narrative, "taking off," in a pleasant way, the mania for decorative art in some of its more extravagant aspects.

The paper contributed by Edward Howland, en-titled "Our Indian Brothers," not only demands condeleration for a subject of great national interest but is also very timely, in view of the proposed trans fer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department. The "Easy Chair" chats of timely subjects-tl

REALLY AN ELEGANT THING.—The new Rocky Moun tain Tourist, just from the press, is indeed an artistic gem. In point of engravings, printing, and descrip tive, it is beyond all question the handsomest public tion of the character ever issued in the United States There are in this work no less than sixteen of Thom as Moran's exquisite drawings, and among them his famous reproduction of the Mount of the Holy Cross Of Moran's other matchless drawings, are those of Grand, Glen, Marble, Knab, and Boulder Canons, Twin Lakes, Teocalli Mountain, etc. Joseph Beard is epresented by characteristic hunting sketches, Bis bing by several exceedingly attractive mountain sketches, Lancelot by spirited drawings of the remarkable rock-sculpture on White River, and Henry Worrall by full-page views at Veta Pass and Wagon Wheel Gap, as well as a large number of other very finely executed sketches in different portions of the Western country. The engravings are for the mos part large, the full quarto pages of the Tourist, enabling the showing to the finest advantage of plates seven by ten inches. The book comprises sixty-four pages, exclusive of the cover, and printed as it is upon supersized and calendared paper of the richest finish the effect throughout is superb. While a very model I beauty, the Tourist is not practical in its range of information, time, distances, railroad and stage fares, hotel and livery rates being noted with uniform accuracy, and in so easy and pleasing a manner as to entirely relieve the work of everything approaching the tedious detail of the average guide book. Containing no advertisements of whatever character, the new Rocky Mountain Tourist is fit companion to Picturesque America in any gentleman's library. Specimen copy may be had without cost by writing to W. F. White, Topeka, Kausas.

The American Agriculturist of April 1st, contains its usual 50 engravings, illustrating animals plants, buildings, labor-saving contrivances, etc; Work for the Month, laid out in detail with practical suggestions; extended Humbug exposures; a $1,000 House Livery-stable and Carriage-House plans; Among the Farmers, by One of them; Farm Crop Talks, No. 14; Goat-Raising for Profit; Root and Fodder Crops; Gardening Chapters; Plant One Grape Vine; Sundry Farm appliances, illustrated; Many House Hints Boys and Girls' Columns; Using the Microscope, with interesting illustrations; and a great variety of condensed useful articles and items. Missionri Conference.

WATHENA, April 2, 1878. EDITOR CHIEF: - The Missionri Annual Conference C the M. E. Church closed its 31st session at the goodly town of Maryville, Nodaway County, on yesterday The proceedings began last Wednesday, a. m., in the usual manner, by celebrating the sacrament of the Lordd's Supper, and some timely remarks by Bishop Bowman, who presided during the session. W. J. Martindale, the old and popular Secretary, was re-elected. Sixty old responded to roll-call. Numerous visiting brethren were present, some of whom addressed the Conference. The Presiding Elders made their usual reports, which showed an encouraging ount of work done the past year. The character of the preachers were all passed, except the case of A. Orr, whose case was referred to a judiciary committee, which, after investigation, found him "not guilty" of the charge laid sgainst him. However, he was located.

The matter of Episcopal residence was considered, and the Conference pledged itself to raise the amount of $1300 toward paying its debt. The anniversary on the publishing interests of the Church elicited unusu al interest. A crowded house greeted the speakers, Dr. Walden, of Cincinnati, and Dr. Fry, of the Central Advocate. The lecture of Rev. R. C. Houghton, of St. Louis, given at Kansas City, was repeated here to a delighted audience. It was on the ma habits of the Chinese. M. S. Curl preached the annual missionary sermon, from the words of Reuben to his brethren, Gen. 42: 22.

A special effort was made on behalf of our Fifth Street Church, in St. Joseph, the Conference pledging itself to aid in raising money to pay the heavy debt hanging over it. A lively discussion took place on educational matters, and the Conference was pledged to the support of our institution at Glasgow, Lewis Colloge. The addresses at the educational aniversa ry were made by Dr. Shumate, and Revs. Hall and Parker. didates were received into full membership. For were admitted on trial. One was re-admitted; one (Bittner) discontinued, at his own request. A. H. Powell was appointed fraternal delegate to the Con ference of the Church, South. Numerous committee made their reports, which were generally adopted without much discussion.

Mexico was fixed as the place for holding the next session. The usual resolution of thanks to the good cople and the Bishop was adopted. The latter briefly addressed the body, and read the appointments for the year, then dismissed with the henceliction. I should not neglect to mention, that there was a very creditable daily published during the week, by

Just published, a new edition of Br. Cul-verwell's Celebrated Resay on the ractical cure (without medicine) of Spirkhar CHMICEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary EPILEFST and Fire, induced by self-induigence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebratesi author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
